(In chamber at 4.45 P.M.)

P.C.

1. I have met both, the petitioners and respondent No.1 in my chamber in order to explore the possibility of settlement. Both the parties have amicably resolved the dispute and that the petitioners are satisfied with the explanation given by respondent No.1 and their differences have been reconciled and resolved.

2. Respondent No.1 who is the medical practitioner had a grievance about an article which was published in Jam-E-Jamshed. Petitioners have conveyed to the Respondent No.1 that they are not responsible for publication and the explanation is accepted by respondent No.1. Respondent No.1, therefore, would like to withdraw the complaint which he has filed in the Court of the Metropolitan Magistrate at Ballard Pier. The said offence being a compoundable offence and since both the parties have resolved their dispute, the said complaint is, by consent of all the parties, quashed and set aside.

3. Criminal Application is disposed of in the above terms.
